

MNHS Union Wage Data

We're bargaining for competitive pay in a competitive field!

On average, MNHS workers make less than both the national and metro area average wages.

Mpls/St. Paul/Bloomington Hourly Average

$30.76

National Hourly Average
US Bureau of Labor Statistics

$28.01

In 2020, MNHS Director and CEO Kent Whitworth's salary was $272,985. That means he was paid over $131 per hour.

$131.24

Before and after Sept. 2022 3% cost of living increase

■ May 2022 ■ September 2022

48%

of union members are still paid less than a living wage.

Mpls/St. Paul/Bloomington Living Wage*

$18.20

*1 Adult/0 Children, from MIT Study

We're bargaining so that we can all afford to work for MNHS!

We make MNHS, and we deserve better!

Submit this postcard to an organizing committee member.

I SUPPORT MNHS WORKERS

#MNHSunion

81%

of employees are in the lowest quadrant of their pay range, regardless of years of service.

We're bargaining for MNHS to recognize the value of dedicated staff!

