

Old Unfair L&I Scheduling System

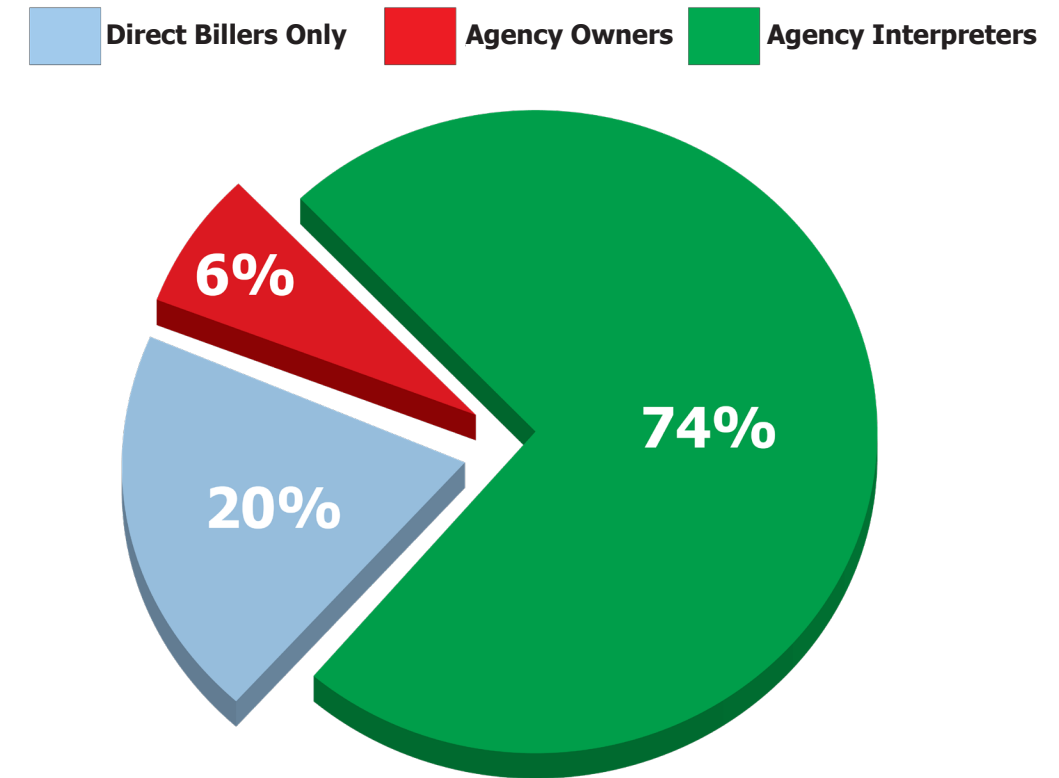

Did you know? A few interpreters who benefited from this system recently formed "unions" to try and keep it in place.

New L&I Online Scheduling System

74% of L&I Interpreters Benefit from the New System

Source: 2019 Official Records Request to L&I per state law (RCW 42.56).

Interpreters United (WFSE) stands for fairness.

Interpreters United (WFSE) believes in a fair system where interpreters are paid for their work.

That's why L&I interpreters are joining us for a strong voice in how the new system works and to fight for improvements like reimbursement for late cancellations and no-shows.

Learn about our campaign at wfse.org/lni-interpreters.